ABOUT THE AUDIT

This report contains the results of our annual independent audit of the City of Aberdeen for the period January 1, 2000, through December 31, 2000.

We performed audit procedures to determine whether the City complied with state laws and regulations, its own policies and procedures, and federal grant requirements. We also audited the financial statements and evaluated internal controls established by City management. Our work focused on specific areas that have potential for abuse or misuse of public resources.

RESULTS

The City complied with state laws and regulations, federal regulations, and its own policies and procedures in the areas we examined. For the financial statement reporting, the City declined to present a statement on pension assets and cash flows. Except for the omission of these two statements, the financial statements were complete and accurate.

Audit Areas Examined

City of Aberdeen Grays Harbor County January 1, 2000 through December 31, 2000

In keeping with general auditing practices, we do not examine every portion of the City of Aberdeen's financial activities during each audit. The areas examined were those representing the highest risk of noncompliance, misappropriation or misuse. Other areas are audited on a rotating basis over the course of several years. The following areas of the City were examined during this audit period:

We audited the following areas for compliance with certain applicable state and local laws and regulations:

- Open Public Meetings Act
- Ethics/conflict of interest laws

- Budget compliance
- Spending state grant funds for allowable purposes

Audit Overview

City of Aberdeen Grays Harbor County January 1, 2000 through December 31, 2000

AUDIT HISTORY

We audit the City of Aberdeen annually. The past five audits have reported some areas of concern.

The 1998 audit contained two findings: one identifying weaknesses in internal controls over fixed assets and the second addressing noncompliance with federal subrecipient monitoring requirements for a federal Community Development Block Grant received by the City. No findings were reported in 1996, 1997 and 1999. This report is also free of audit findings.

CONCLUSIONS

In the areas examined, we found the City complied with state laws and regulations, its own policies and procedures, and federal financial assistance requirements. Except for the omission of the statement on its pension assets and cash flows, we found the City's financial statements to be complete and accurate. The omission of these statements is a departure from generally accepted accounting principles and will result in a qualified audit opinion.

In addition, we did note certain conditions that we have communicated to City management.

It is extremely important to have the assistance and cooperation of all City personnel in order to provide a timely and cost effective audit. We wish to personally thank the Municipal Court, Parks and Recreation, Police and Public Works Departments for their cooperation and assistance in helping to provide a productive and effective audit.

Independent Auditor's Report on Compliance and Internal Control over Financial Reporting in Accordance with Government Auditing Standards

City of Aberdeen
Grays Harbor County
January 1, 2000 through December 31, 2000

Council Members
City of Aberdeen
Aberdeen, Washington

We have audited the financial statements of the City of Aberdeen, Grays Harbor County, Washington, as of and for the year ended December 31, 2000, and have issued our report thereon dated July 17, 2001. We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States.

COMPLIANCE

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the City's financial statements are free of material misstatements, we performed tests of the City's compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grants, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. We also performed additional tests of compliance with state laws and regulations as required by Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 43.09.260. This statute requires the State Auditor to inquire as to whether the City complied with the laws and the Constitution of the State of Washington, its own ordinances and orders, and the requirements of the State Auditor's Office. Our responsibility is to examine, on a test basis, evidence about the City's compliance with those requirements and to make a reasonable effort to identify any instances of misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance in office on the part of any public officer or employee and to report any such instance to the management of the City and to the Attorney General. However, the objective of our audit of the financial statements was not to provide an opinion on overall compliance with these provisions. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

The results of our tests disclosed no instances of material noncompliance that are required to be reported herein under Government Auditing Standards.

However, we noted certain matters involving noncompliance not significant enough to report as findings that we have reported to management of the City in a separate letter dated September 11, 2001.

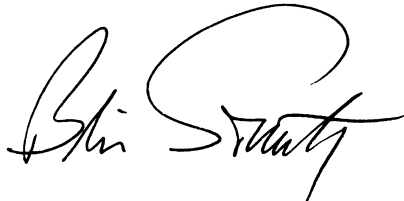

INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

In planning and performing our audit, we considered the City's internal control over financial reporting in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide an opinion on the internal control over financial reporting.

Our consideration of the internal control over financial reporting would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control over financial reporting that might be material weaknesses. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that misstatements in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. We noted no matters involving the internal control over financial reporting and its operation that we consider to be material weaknesses.

However, we noted certain matters involving the internal control over financial reporting that we have reported to the management of the City in a separate letter dated September 11, 2001.

This report is intended for the information of management, the Council Members, and federal awarding agencies and pass-through entities. However, this report is a matter of public record and its distribution is not limited. It also serves to disseminate information to the public as a reporting tool to help citizens assess government operations.

Independent Auditor's Report on Compliance with Requirements Applicable to each Major Program and Internal Control over Compliance in Accordance with OMB Circular A-133

COMPLIANCE

We have audited the compliance of the City of Aberdeen, Grays Harbor County, Washington, with the types of compliance requirements described in the U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-133 Compliance Supplement that are applicable to each of its major federal programs for the year ended December 31, 2000. The City's major federal programs are identified in the Federal Summary. Compliance with the requirements of laws, regulations, contracts and grants applicable to each of its major federal programs is the responsibility of the City's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the City's compliance based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in compliance with generally accepted auditing standards; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and OMB Circular A-133, Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations. Those standards and OMB Circular A-133 require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about the City's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our audit does not provide a legal determination on the City's compliance with those requirements.

In our opinion, the City complied, in all material respects, with the requirements referred to above that are applicable to each of its major federal programs for the year ended December 31, 2000.

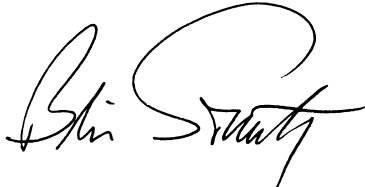

INTERNAL CONTROL OVER COMPLIANCE

The management of the City is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with requirements of laws, regulations, contracts and grants applicable to federal programs. In planning and performing our audit, we considered the City's internal control over compliance with requirements that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on compliance and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with OMB Circular A-133.

Our consideration of the internal control over compliance would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control that might be material weaknesses. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that noncompliance with applicable requirements of laws, regulations, contracts and grants that would be material in relation to a major federal program being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. We noted no matters involving the internal control over compliance and its operation that we consider to be material weaknesses.

This report is intended for the information of management, the Council Members, and federal awarding agencies and pass-through entities. However, this report is a matter of public record and its distribution is not limited. It also serves to disseminate information to the public as a reporting tool to help citizens assess government operations.

Independent Auditor's Report on Financial Statements

City of Aberdeen Grays Harbor County January 1, 2000 through December 31, 2000

Council Members
City of Aberdeen
Aberdeen, Washington

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the City of Aberdeen, Grays Harbor County, Washington, as of and for the year ended December 31, 2000. These financial statements are the responsibility of the City's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatements. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of the City of Aberdeen as of December 31, 2000, and the related statements of revenues, expenditures and changes in fund balance for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the City's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

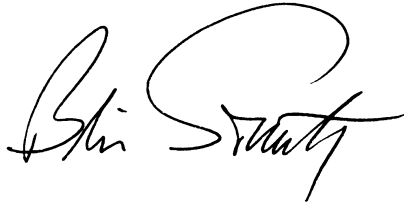

The City of Aberdeen declined to present a statement of cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2000. Presentation of such statements summarizing the City's operating, investing and financing activities is required by generally accepted accounting principles.

The City also declined to present a statement of plan net assets of its Pension Trust Fund for the year ended December 31, 2000. Presentation of such statements summarizing the City's changes in plan net assets of its Pension Trust Fund is required by generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, except that the omission of a statement of cash flows and statement of plan net assets that results in an incomplete presentation as explained in the preceding paragraphs, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the City of Aberdeen, as of December 31, 2000, and the results of its operations and cash flows of its proprietary fund types and similar trust funds for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated July 17, 2001, on our consideration of the City's internal control over financial reporting and our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grants. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards and should be read in conjunction with this report in considering the results of our audit.

Our audit was performed for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying Schedule of Expenditures of Federal Awards is presented for purposes of additional analysis as required by U.S. Office of Management and Budget Circular A-133, Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations. The accompanying Schedule of State and Local Financial Assistance is also presented for purposes of additional analysis. These schedules are not a required part of the financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly presented, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.
